Leading the way forward for over 70 years

Since its inception in 1940, Clarion has been enveloped in an environment that is constantly and dynamically evolving — from the AM radio to digital broadcasting and navigation, and even more so with the emergence of electric vehicles and a networked society.

Clarion has pioneered the market for products that connect people, cars, sound and information, including the world's first in-car PC among many achievements. And in 2006 the company launched the global "Clarion" brand to solidify its worldwide image.

To this day, in its endeavour to develop products of real value that contribute to a prosperous society, Clarion continues to pursue car safety and comfort, and new ways to connect people with the type of driving experience they want. And in this pursuit, Clarion continues to rely on your support and patronage. Please make use of this handy reference to effectively promote Clarion products to your clientele.
